Lux Builders And Remodeling

Contractors

★★★★★ 10/4/2015

Lux Builders remodeled my first floor which included a new kitchen, bathroom, living room, family room, wet bar and entertainment center. I can tell you that the workmanship was first-rate and Paul Sagi employs true craftsmen. He demonstrates a strong interest in my level of satisfaction with the work and goes to great lengths to ensure this. When the tilers completed the bathroom floor, wall and shower tile installation, for example, I told Paul that my choice of tile colors didn't work once I saw it up on the walls. Paul immediately had the tilers replace the tile from one of the walls and nook areas with another color and this did the trick. The tilers weren't happy because they had to drive across town in rush hour to get replacement tile and stay late to finish the work but Paul understands that customer satisfaction comes first. And so it went with all facets of our remodel....the wood flooring selection, the custom cabinetry, the paint colors...Paul patiently worked with us until we were satisfied with the outcome. I have no reservations in recommending Lux Builders for high quality remodeling work.
